CONTENT CREATOR

Costa Rican-born and Germany-based, Mila Bouzid is a vocalist known for her warm tone, viral scale improvisations, and powerful soprano agility. With a repertoire spanning pop, soul, jazz, and atmospheric indie music, she has established herself as a versatile live performer across orchestral productions, television appearances and private events. In Costa Rica, she performed regularly with the Philharmonic Orchestra, one of the region's leading ensembles. She is now preparing her debut studio album, a pop record with middle eastern, latin, and electronic influences, projected for release in spring 2027.

LIVE MUSIC OFFERING

Whether she is performing an intimate acoustic set, belting her heart out in a power ballad, or electrifying a big audience with her bold, contagious energy, Mila Bouzid's vocal skill, stage presence and crowd control is proven to move both hearts and bodies.

Some of her recent live performances (2025-2026) include The Voice of Germany, where she reached the quarter finals, numerous theater performances with the Philharmonic Orchestra in Costa Rica, and private events for corporations like Intel, HP and The Four Seasons Hotels.

Performance formats

Solo / Backing tracks

Vocal-first show using backing tracks and a live-looping section, with improvisation and crowd work. Duration: 2-3 sets of 40 minutes each.

Acoustic set

Perfect for events, wedding receptions, hospitality settings. Vocals + a piano or guitar accompanist. Duration: 3-4 sets of 40 minutes.

Live party band

Upbeat format featuring vocals, guitar, bass, piano, and drums. More instruments and vocalists can be added to fit the event. The favorite for parties, company events, ballrooms, weddings, and any other occasion where you want people dancing. Duration: 4 sets of 45 minutes each.

Orchestra or Big Band

A special format with strings, brass and percussion. A statement show that will have people talking for a long time. Duration: 2 sets of 1 hour each.

Languages

Mila Bouzid can perform in English, Spanish, German and French.
