

Mila Bouzid

What's the difference between
"just a moment in time" and an unforgettable experience?

Easy.

Great live music.

About the artist

Mila Bouzid is a vocalist known for her bright, warm soprano tone, emotional delivery, and natural connection with the audience. She is one of the vocalists on 16th season of the prestigious competition The Voice of Germany.

Whether she is performing an intimate acoustic set, crooning sultry jazz standards, belting her heart out in a power ballad, or electrifying the dance floor with her contagious energy, Mila is guaranteed to tug at heart strings and get people off their seat and onto the dancefloor.

A versatile live performer, her ever-expanding repertoire spans several decades and genres like ballads, pop anthems, jazz standards, soul classics, party hits, and world music rhythms like boleros, bossa. You can access a sample repertoire here.

For the past 8 years, Mila has established herself as a proven vocalist capable of commanding both large-scale productions, for instance, as a regular performer with the Philharmonic Orchestra of Costa Rica -one of the most prestigious in the region- and more intimate stages, such as weddings, birthdays, corporate events, and celebrations of all kinds.

Mila Bouzid speaks English, Spanish, German and French, and can perform in those languages as well. She is based between Munich, Germany and San José, Costa Rica, and is available for bookings worldwide.
